

2019 CINT ANNUAL MEETING

September 22-24, 2019

The Center for Integrated Nanotechnologies (CINT) Annual Meeting is an opportunity to showcase the innovative research in nanoscience and nanotechnology carried out by CINT scientists and users.

Join us this September to learn about our latest research and the capabilities and resources available at CINT, as well as the process for becoming a user.

Symposia

- Computation and Theory of Soft Matter
- Machine Learning for Nanoscale Materials
- 2D Materials

Plus four plenary speakers and a poster session reception.
